Ellen Petrino, former Mercer Executive, joins XTP

[26.04.23, New Rochelle, New York] Ellen Petrino, former Principal and Senior Consultant at Mercer, joins XTP Implementation Services, Inc. as a Senior Advisor. Ellen will support XTP's growth plans in the U.S., closely working together with Managing Director Ian Leverich and Executive Chairman Bill Conlin.

Ellen spent her whole career in investment consulting. She was a Founding Partner and Senior Consultant of Evaluation Associates, a US-based investment consulting firm that was acquired by Mercer in 2011. Ellen continued working at Mercer as an executive until 2019.

During her professional career, she gained extensive experience in manager research, custodian searches, OCIO/advisory/internal CIO decisions, and consulting on investment strategy/asset allocation recommendations. Since 2020, she serves as the Board Treasurer of the World Foundation for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts and holds several other board and Finance Committee roles at U.S. foundations and endowments.

Executive Chairman Bill Conlin said: "Ellen has a true passion for working with asset owners. She understands their needs and knows about the importance of cost-efficient investment portfolios. Onboarding Ellen underpins XTP's continued commitment to the U.S. We are looking forward to working with her."

Ellen Petrino: "I have been fascinated by XTP's offering from day one. XTP has a proven track record in helping asset owners to get the most from their current investment set-ups and enhancing investment governance. I am excited to support the XTP team in bringing value to its U.S. clients."

About XTP:

XTP is a specialist consultant focusing on investment transparency, cost, and risk. XTP increases net returns and enhances investment governance in public and private market portfolios of large institutional asset owners in Europe and the US.
